SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1860.

NO SPEECH ON MONDAY.

We regret to announce that Col. J. C. Walker, Presidential Elector for the State at large, who was announced to speak here on Monday next, will be unable, through indisposition, to fill his appointment. He is laboring under a severe affection of the throat, and has been compelled to return home. He will take an early opportunity, after his recovery, to visit Fort Wayne, and address our citizens.

For We have met with some various disappointments in getting ready to issue our Daily, which have severely tried our patience, as well as that of our numerous subscribers; and we are even yet unable to fix the exact day of its first appearance. We hope however, it will not be later than the last of next week. Our material has all arrived, but the press maker has not yet made his appearance to put up our Power Press. We expect him here early next week, and as soon as he completes his work we shall be ready to commence the Daily Sentinel. Those wishing advertisements in the first number, are requested to hand them in immediately.

Emlargement of the Sentinel. In the course of a week or two we shall enlarge our Weekly Sentinel, by the addition of another column to each page, making it one of the largest papers in the State. It will be printed on new material, will contain nearly double the reading matter we have heretofore been enabled to give and we trust will meet with a corresponding increase of patronage. We hope our friends throughout the country will make an effort on our behalf, and induce their neighbors to subscribe. By a little exertion of this kind, our circulation in the county might be doubled, and we flatter ourselves that none who might be induced to subscribe would regret doing so. Our enlarged paper will be well worth the price charged for it.

We will furnish it during the campaign for the small price of 50 cents, and allow an extra copy gratis to any person who will get up a club of five or more, and forward us the names and the money.

Gerrit Smith on the Presidential Question.—Gerrit Smith has addressed a letter to his old friend, Fred Douglas, giving his views on the Presidential question. He says, "I can neither vote for Lincoln, Breckinridge, Bell, or Douglass, nor Douglass and denounces 'temperance, freedom, and the irrepressible conflict' as his platform. In conclusion, Mr. Smith says that he entertains but little hope for the temperance or freedom in our day."

The "straight-on" honest Abolitionists, under the lead of Gerrit Smith, have called a State convention at Syracuse on the 15th of August next, for the nomination of an Abolition electoral ticket opposed to Lincoln and Hamlin. The "straight-on" estimate their vote at fifteen thousand, all of which has hitherto been given to the Republicans.

This will more than set-off the vote diverted from the Democrats by the office-holders Breckinridge secession movement, and ensures the vote of New York to Douglass. It is given up by all well informed persons that Lincoln can in no contingency carry the Empire State, and without it he cannot possibly be elected—evn if he should carry all the remaining Northern states—which no one admits to be probable or even possible. His only object in running therefore, is to prevent an election by the people and throw it into the House, where he may hope by trickery, bargain, or bribery to over come the majority against him.

How brightly breaks the Morning!—We have most encouraging accounts of the prospects of Douglass from all parts of the Union. The giant Northwest is almost unanimous for him. New York, it is given up, will cast her 35 votes in favor of the only conservative Union party.—Pennsylvania is generally expected to follow suit; we are rapidly gaining ground in the East, and have every reason to count on two or three New England States for Douglass. And last, but not least, the accounts from the South are unexpectedly favorable. Alabama, Yancey's own State, is overwhelmingly in favor of Douglass, union, and non-intervention. Georgia and Louisiana are certain for Douglass; Kentucky will vote against Breckinridge; and throughout the South the feeling is rapidly spreading that the election of Douglass alone can save the Union from the peril with which it is threatened by the Abolitionists of the north, and the Disunionists of the South. The masses are speaking.

and we expect next November will put an effectual extinguisher on the factious madcap who have so long misrepresented the South, and render our glorious Union unshaken.

Congressional District Mass Conventions.—The Democratic State Central Committee, at its late meeting, passed a resolution recommending the Democrats to hold district meetings in every congressional district. The District Central Committees are requested to appoint the time and place for the convention, and make all the necessary arrangements, and advise the Chairman of the State Central Committee, who will aid in furnishing speakers.

Young Men's Democratic Club.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of this city met pursuant to notice last Wednesday evening in Miller's Hall. Mr. T. MESSIAS having resigned his office of Secretary of the Club, Mr. JOHN TOOK was unanimously elected in his place.

After the usual routine of business the Club adjourned to the Court House, where speeches were made by MOSES JENKINSON, W. S. SMITH, and other gentlemen. Mr. JENKINSON, who first addressed the meeting, said, in substance, that there was but one course for all honest men to pursue, and that was to cleave to that which is good, and eschew that which is evil. That honesty is the best policy, in politics as well as in all the other relations of life. Hence, no matter what Northern and Southern fanatics may do, National Democrats, to whom are intrusted the destinies of the country, must adhere to the great fundamental principle of our institutions: Popular Sovereignty, and on the question of Slavery, Non-Intervention. That principle is written in every patriotic heart, and must in the nature of things triumph. The speaker alluded to the Breckinridge secession movement, and said, though some might deem it ominous of evil, he did not so regard it. It might temporally disintegrate the Democratic party, but, Democrats had the attraction of cohesiveness about them in a peculiar degree, and he never knew a man who once belonged to that noble party but rejoiced to return like the prodigal son. The Yanceyites had only waded the Northern Democrats closer, and developed the raven for love and faithful adherence to principle. The remarks of Mr. JENKINSON were much applauded.

The same may be said of Indiana, and especially of Allen County. Nearly all the Democrats who left the party on the Kansas question have returned to their first love, and hosts of Republicans have signified their intention of voting for Douglass. In some of the Republican organizations it is a change in quick march, and several who have been looked upon as Republican leaders are now warm in their support of Douglass.

The Richland (Ohio) Democrat states quite a number of Democrats in that vicinity, who left the Democratic party in 1854, are now coming back to their first love, since the party has purged itself of disunionists, and will vote for Douglass and Johnson.

SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1:00.

NO SPEECH ON MONDAY.

We regret to announce that Col. J. C. Walker, Presidential Elector for the State at large, who was announced to speak here on Monday next, will be unable, through indisposition, to fill his appointment. He is laboring under a severe affection of the throat, and has been compelled to return home. He will take an early opportunity, after his recovery, to visit Fort Wayne, and address our citizens.

We have met with some vexatious disappointments in getting ready to leave our Daily, which have severely tried our patience, as well as that of our numerous subscribers; and we are even yet unable to fix the exact day of its first appearance. We hope, however, it will not be later than the last of next week. Our material has all arrived, but the press maker has not yet made his appearance to put up our Power Press. We expect him here early next week, and as soon as he completes his work we shall be ready to commence the daily bond. Those wishing advertisements in the first number, are requested to hand them in immediately.

Enlargement of the Sentinel.

In the course of a week or two we shall enlarge our Weekly Sentinel, by the addition of another column to each page, making it one of the largest papers in the State. It will be printed on new material, will contain nearly double the reading matter we have heretofore been enabled to give, and we trust will meet with a corresponding increase of patronage. We hope our friends through the country will make an effort on our behalf, and induce their neighbors to subscribe. By a little exertion of this kind, our circulation in the county might be doubled, and we flatter ourselves that none who might be induced to subscribe would regret doing so. Our enlarged paper will be well worth the price charged for it.

We will furnish it during the campaign for the small price of 50 cents, and allow an extra copy gratis to any person who will get up a club of five or more, and forward us the names and the money.

Gerrit Smith on the Presidential Question.—Gerrit Smith has addressed a letter to his wife friend, Fred Douglass, giving his views on the Presidential question. He says, he can neither vote for Lincoln, Breckinridge, Bell, or Douglas, nor Douglass and denounces "treason, freedom, and the irresponsible conflict" as his platform. In conclusion, Mr. Smith says that he entertains but little hope for the temporary or freedom in our day.

The "straight-out" honest Abolitionists, under the lead of Govt. Smith, have called a State Convention at Syracuse on the 15th of August next, for the nomination of an Abolition electoral ticket opposed to Lincoln and Hamlin. The "straight-outs" estimate their vote at fifteen thousand, all of which has hitherto been given to the Republicans.

This will more than set-off the vote diverted from the Democrats by the office-holders Breckinridge succession movement, and ensure the vote of New York to Douglass. It is given up by all well informed persons that Lincoln can in no contingency carry the Empire State, and without it he cannot possibly be elected—even if he should carry all the remaining Northern States—which no one admits to be probable or even possible. His only object in running, therefore, is to prevent an election by the people, and throw it into the House, where he may hope by trickery, bargain, or bribery to over come the majority against him.

How brightly breaks the Morning!—We have most encouraging accounts of the prospects of Douglass from all parts of the Union. The giant Northwest is almost unanimous for him. New York, it is given up, will cast her 35 votes in favor of the only conservative Union party.—Pennsylvania is generally expected to follow suit; we are rapidly gaining ground in the East, and have every reason to count on two or three New England States for Douglass. And last, but not least, the accounts from the South are unexpectedly favorable. Alabama, Taft's own State, is overwhelmingly in favor of Douglass, union, and non-intersection. Georgia and Louisiana are certain for Douglass; Kentucky will vote against Breckinridge; and throughout the South the feeling is rapidly spreading that the election of Douglass alone can save the Union from the perils with which it is threatened by the Abolitionists of the north, and the Disunionists of the South. The masses are speaking.

and we expect next November will put an effectual extinguisher on the factions madcap who have so long misrepresented the South, and strove to sow the seeds of discord and rend our glorious Union asunder.

Congressional District Mass Convention.—The Democratic State Central Committee, at its late meeting, passed a resolution recommending the Democrats to hold district meetings in every congressional district. The District Central Committees are requested to appoint the time and place for the convention, and make all the necessary arrangements, and advise the Chairman of the State Central Committee, who will aid in furnishing speakers.

Young Men's Democratic Club.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of this city met pursuant to notice last Wednesday evening at Miller's Hall. Mr. T. MEEGAN having resigned his office of Secretary of the Club, Mr. JOHN FOX was unanimously elected in his place.

Baltimore.—Death of Joseph Gates.—Joseph Gates, of the National Intelligence, died last Saturday night, in the 75th year of his age. He was, during two-thirds of his life, connected with that establishment. For several years past he had been very infirm, but continued his usual visits to the office, until toward the end of last week, having deservedly been held in the highest esteem by all classes of the community, his decease occasioned the deepest sorrow. Mr. Gates is to be buried on Tuesday, from his country seat, Ellington, near the city. There will probably be a large procession.

The Richland (Ohio) Democrat states quite a number of Democrats in that vicinity, who left the Democratic party in 1856, are now coming back to their first love, since the party has purged itself of disunionists, and will vote for Douglass and Johnson.

The same may be said of Indiana; and especially of Allen County. Nearly all the Democrats who left the party on the Kansas question have returned to their first love, and hosts of Republicans have signified their intention of voting for Douglass. In some of the Republican townships a change is quite marked, and several who have been looked upon as Republican leaders are now warm in their support of Douglass.

Baltimore.—We have incurred a heavy expense in purchasing new materials for our paper, and intend to eke out our profits by advertising. We regret to announce that we purposed doing in a week or two. We are consequently much in need of money, and therefore earnestly call on all who are fit to do so to make immediate payment. Though our accounts are moderately small, and therefore easily settled, they amount in the aggregate to a large sum which would greatly help us if we could have immediate payment. Those whose accounts are larger, in consequence of having been allowed to run so long, are reminded that it is now time to pay, and justice to demand that they should be paid without further delay. An we have already made, we need every dollar we can raise at this time, and therefore hope all indebted will come forward and help us.

Young Breckinridge State Convention in Illinois.—The telegraph, a few days ago, gave us an account of a Breckinridge State Convention in Illinois, which nominated an electoral, and State ticket. The Springfield (Illinois) State Register, printed at the place where the Convention was held, thus speaks of it:

"There were eleven counties out of the one hundred and two in the state represented in by fifty three self-constituted delegates. Forty-one of the fifty-three delegates are government office-holders, and the remaining twelve have relatives in office."

Mr. Editor:—Please announce the name of JAMES B. SHOFFA as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Allen Co., Indiana, to the decision of the people. He modestly submits his claims to his fellow citizens at the suggestion of many.

OLD SETTLERS'

There is no longer any difficulty in getting children to take reme medicines. The little fellows like Oliver Twist, and for me, after they have once taken Bull's Vegetable Herbs Destroyer. In addition to its being so pleasant to the palate, it is one of the purest and safest vermifuges known in all materia medica.

THE CONFESSIONS & EXPERIENCE

VICTIM:
Designed for the benefit of the public, and especially those that are connected with the medical profession, and the public, in consequence of youthful indiscretions, or the honest fault of self, and the results attending the commission of self-same.

Young men suffered from the above cause, and from youthful indiscretions, and quickly made amends, and became the subjects of the most eloquent and popular speakers.

INPECTING THE Persian Fever Charm.

For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague, and Persian Fever. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has had great success with it.

While going down the river Erie, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, he called on a physician, and said, "I have a Persian Fever Charm, which will cure you." Although incredulous at his statement, he complied, and experienced a rapid recovery. The physician, however, was not satisfied with the result, and advised him to seek a medical consultation.

On further investigation he found that the physician actually had a Persian Fever Charm, which he obtained from the Friars of the Order of St. Francis. After the physician, the gentleman, in route along with a Priest, had been the subject of the inspection, and again before he reached the city, he was compelled to confess his sins. The wonderful virtues of this charm were then fully explained, and the physician was greatly pleased with the results of the treatment.

Since his return to America, he has been tried while supposed to be several days, and the physicians of high rank, and the best medical men, have been unable to detect any disease from the Persian Fever. In fact, for months, he has been the subject of the inspection, and again before he reached the city, he was compelled to confess his sins. The wonderful virtues of this charm were then fully explained, and the physician was greatly pleased with the results of the treatment.
